DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Fitzpatrick et al. (USPN5,949,357).

Fitzpatrick et al. disclose magnetic disk apparatus comprising:

a recording medium for recording thereon data (column 1, lines 7-8);

a head for recording the data on said recording medium (column 7, lines 51-53);

an interface circuit for interfacing with an external appliance (column 7, lines 62-64);

a signal processing circuit equipped with a coding device for coding the data outputted from said hard disk controller, while restricting a continuous number of "1" contained in a bit stream of a code word (column 6, lines 45-51).
